

90 Days With No Rights - Wrong!

The National Party wants to let the boss sack workers for any reason in the first three months.

National's Bill* gives the boss the right to sack workers for any reason and would mean no right of appeal against unfair dismissal in the first 90 days.

This would affect all workers: teachers, clothing workers, care givers, public servants, labourers, clerical workers, supermarket workers, bank tellers, surgeons, cleaners, academics, engineers, -ALL New Zealand workers would be affected by National's bill.

* The Employment Relations (Probationary Employment) Amendment Bill introduced as a private members' Bill by National's spokesperson for industrial relations.

Beat the Bill!

Take action against this Bill. Look out for the campaign leaflets and postcards, or phone
