

The Hollow Men: Our Democracy or Theirs?

Is our democracy “rule by the people” or rule by the corporate funders? How do we restore integrity and transparency to election campaign funding? What needs to change so ordinary New Zealanders feel they have an equal say in our political system?

When Tuesday March 27 2007
7pm – 9pm

Where Rutherford House Lecture
Theatre 1
Pipitea Campus, Victoria University,
Ground Floor, Cnr Bunny Street &
Lambton Quay

Speakers Nicky Hager, journalist and author
Therese Arseneau, Dept
of Political Science, University of Canterbury
Andrew Geddis, Faculty of Law, University of Otago

For Further
Information Phone (04) 802-3817

or visit

WWW.UNION.ORG.NZ

The Hollow Men: Our Democracy or Theirs?

Is our democracy “rule by the people” or rule by the corporate funders? How do we restore integrity and transparency to election campaign funding? What needs to change so ordinary New Zealanders feel they have an equal say in our political system?

When Tuesday March 27 2007
7pm – 9pm

Where Rutherford House Lecture
Theatre 1
Pipitea Campus, Victoria University,
Ground Floor, Cnr Bunny Street &
Lambton Quay

Speakers Nicky Hager, journalist and
author
Therese Arseneau, Dept
of Political Science, University of Canterbury
Andrew Geddis, Faculty of Law, University of Otago

For Further
Information Phone (04) 802-3817

or visit

WWW.UNION.ORG.NZ

The Hollow Men: Our Democracy or Theirs?

Is our democracy “rule by the people” or rule by the corporate funders? How do we restore integrity and transparency to election campaign funding? What needs to change so ordinary New Zealanders feel they have an equal say in our political system?

When Tuesday March 27 2007
7pm – 9pm

Where Rutherford House Lecture
Theatre 1
Pipitea Campus, Victoria University,
Ground Floor, Cnr Bunny Street &
Lambton Quay

Speakers Nicky Hager, journalist and
author
Therese Arseneau, Dept
of Political Science, University of Canterbury
Andrew Geddis, Faculty of Law, University of Otago

For Further
Information Phone (04) 802-3817

or visit

WWW.UNION.ORG.NZ

Nicky Hager is an investigative journalist and author of four books, most recently The Hollow Men. He will be speaking about why so many people feel turned off by modern politics and what can be done in New Zealand to change that.

Nicky Hager is an investigative journalist and author of four books, most recently The Hollow Men. He will be speaking about why so many people feel turned off by modern politics and what can be done in New Zealand to change that.

Nicky Hager is an investigative journalist and author of four books, most recently The Hollow Men. He will be speaking about why so many people feel turned off by modern politics and what can be done in New Zealand to change that.

Therese Arseneau is a Senior Research Fellow in the School of Political Science and Communication at the University of Canterbury. She specialises in New Zealand and Canadian politics and is a regular media analyst for television and radio in both Canada and New Zealand. In 2005 she was an election night analyst for TV3. Dr. Arseneau will be speaking about the importance of elections to a healthy democracy and will examine the role of the media and other players in the electoral process.

Therese Arseneau is a Senior Research Fellow in the School of Political Science and Communication at the University of Canterbury. She specialises in New Zealand and Canadian politics and is a regular media analyst for television and radio in both Canada and New Zealand. In 2005 she was an election night analyst for TV3. Dr. Arseneau will be speaking about the importance of elections to a healthy democracy and will examine the role of the media and other players in the electoral process.

Therese Arseneau is a Senior Research Fellow in the School of Political Science and Communication at the University of Canterbury. She specialises in New Zealand and Canadian politics and is a regular media analyst for television and radio in both Canada and New Zealand. In 2005 she was an election night analyst for TV3. Dr. Arseneau will be speaking about the importance of elections to a healthy democracy and will examine the role of the media and other players in the electoral process.

Andrew Geddis is an Associate Professor in Law at the University of Otago and specialises in electoral law and campaign financing. He is the author of "Election Law in New Zealand: Practice and Policy" (LexisNexis, 2007). He will be discussing flaws in the present legal regulation of election campaign funding and proposing reforms that might address these shortcomings.

Andrew Geddis is an Associate Professor in Law at the University of Otago and specialises in electoral law and campaign financing. He is the author of "Election Law in New Zealand: Practice and Policy" (LexisNexis, 2007). He will be discussing flaws in the present legal regulation of election campaign funding and proposing reforms that might address these shortcomings.

Andrew Geddis is an Associate Professor in Law at the University of Otago and specialises in electoral law and campaign financing. He is the author of "Election Law in New Zealand: Practice and Policy" (LexisNexis, 2007). He will be discussing flaws in the present legal regulation of election campaign funding and proposing reforms that might address these shortcomings.